METROPOLIS OF
NEW JERSEY

My Beloved Parishioners,

On Sunday, June 12, Orthodox Christians throughout the world will observe the feast day of Pentecost. Special prayers are read on this day during the service of Vespers, which is celebrated immediately following the Divine Liturgy. During the commemoration of this great day in Christian history, we are reminded of the promise made by our Lord to the Disciples: "These things I have spoken to you while being present with you. But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you" (John 14:25 & 26).

The Holy Spirit is sent as "The Comforter," the "Spirit of Truth," who will guide the Apostles and the Church in maintaining the correctness of the Faith, as taught by our Lord and developed in the theology of Holy Scripture and the sacred Councils. Nowhere is confidence in this assertion better expressed and experienced than at the first Council of the Apostles in Jerusalem, as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles (15:6-29). The Apostles and elders of the Church were in disagreement on certain issues and came together to discuss what should be done regarding them. In a letter sent from Jerusalem to the Church in Antioch, the Apostles establish clearly what needs to be done regarding the matters discussed by them at the Council. What is of ultimate importance is the manner in which they formulate and express their decision. They write: "For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us..." (v. 28). Clearly, they were conscious of the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit in their work. Their decisions, therefore, became normative for the life and practice of the Faith. They are obeyed and observed, because they are not "man-made" rules, but a way of life, "for the edifying of the body of Christ" (Eph. 4:12). Everything done by and in the Church has as its goal this unique purpose: to make us "a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light" (I Pet. 2:9).

The history of our holy Orthodox Faith is a living witness and testimony to the struggles of the Apostles and Fathers of the Church to maintain the integrity of Christ's teaching, as reflected in His life and thought. The saints of our Church, those brave men and women of all ages, willing to shed their blood and sacrifice their lives for Christ and the truth, continue to inspire us today as we strive to maintain the Faith. All Orthodox Christians, from the day of our Baptism and Chrismation, are endowed by the Church with a personal experience of Pentecost, enabling us to witness to our Faith in Christ Jesus through words and works and, in so doing, become, each to his own ability, "the salt of the earth" and "a light of the world" (Mt. 5:13&14).

Let us continue, beloved in Christ, by exercising our spiritual responsibilities as members of the Body of Christ and invoking the grace of the Spirit in our life and work, to manifest the joy, hope and peace of our Faith to all the world that, in the end, all may be saved.

Father George Alexson

From the Parish Council President

Christos Anesti! We had a wonderful Lenten Season and especially Holy Week at the Greek Orthodox Parish of Loudoun County. One of the many benefits of having our own, full-time priest was realized as Fr. George put together a full schedule of Lenten Services including Lenten Lectures. Our blessings are many, and your Parish Council is very hard at work defining the next steps for our young Parish...more on those plans later in this article.

There is no rest for the weary however. Right now, the Festival Committee and Parish Council are finalizing over 100 days worth of work, research, and decisions concerning the planning of our 3rd Annual Greek Festival, set for the 20-22 May! We are actively seeking donations to help offset our start up costs and as always are badly in need for volunteers to start signing up for shift work during the festival itself. If you would like to make a donation, please contact me at aubinb@verizon.net. For shift work during the festival, our Labor Committee chairperson is Craig Dodson and can be reached at flat6bkr@yahoo.com. Please let him know as soon as possible what day(s) you can help. We would not be able to run our Taste of Greece or Greek Festival events without the help of our volunteers. There are so many benefits to our church when these events are successful...from community outreach to raising money for our building fund, etc. You are the face of our Parish, and are a big reason for all of our successes. I look forward to seeing you all out there this year.

Now that our leased facility is 98% complete and we have Fr George on board full-time to guide our spiritual growth, it is time to start the next phase of our plan...Building our Church. There is a great deal involved with this phase obviously...but the bottom line is, we need to aggressively start to raise money to secure land for our Church. With that being said, there are two Parish Committees that are under-manned right now that will be getting the Parish Council's full attention almost immediately. First, there is the Future Planning Committee. Right now that committee has two people on it and we need more help. The second committee is our Fundraising Committee. We need creative thinkers on both committees to help with our planning, and to help with raising money to meet our goals. Creative fundraising through our surrounding community is a necessity to get this project (Build our Church!) off the ground. We have grand ideas of building a beautiful Byzantine-style church that can seat 500 people here in Loudoun County...but those ideas require hard work and people dedicated to the cause. The 11 members of your Parish Council cannot handle this task on their own...we need your help. If you are interested in helping us with this next important phase of our growth or have any questions, please contact me via email or phone and I'd be happy to talk to you about these opportunities. Until then, pray for good weather during the weekend of our Greek Festival and we'll see you all on the dance floor...OPA!

With Gratitude in Christ,
-Bill

Coffee Hour Change

As many of you may know, Cynthia and Jeff Smith have coordinated and implemented our Fellowship hour since about the time we formed our parish almost 5 years ago. During that time, Parish Council members also assisted with our weekly coffee hour duties. The parish is grateful to Cynthia and Jeff for all their time and effort and for making our Fellowship hour such a wonderful event following Divine Liturgy. As much as they, and the Parish Council, have enjoyed doing this for our church, the time has come to handle our Fellowship hour in a different way.

Several options were discussed including asking our parish members to volunteer to serve on a Fellowship Committee, only offering a few items, or rotating the coffee hour schedule among the various parish organizations. It seems like the best solution is to do a coffee hour rotation among our various organizations. How it will work is that each of our ministries or groups will be assigned coffee hour for an entire month. It will be up to the groups themselves to coordinate the bringing in of food on their designated Sundays and do the set up and clean up. The Parish Council will still start the coffee in the morning but the bulk of the weekly hosting will fall to our parish groups. Under this new arrangement, each ministry will host 2 times a year. Cynthia will still oversee the Fellowship hour in that the groups can let her know if we are low on supplies and if special arrangements need to be made for Memorials, etc.

The new schedule will start in June with the Parish Council being the group to host Fellowship hour as well as doing the set up and clean up. Other ministries will follow. Again, if any one in the parish wants to do the hosting for a particular Sunday or if special arrangements need to be made for Memorials and such, contact Cynthia Smith at silvercps@hotmail.com.

Our new Fellowship Hour is as follows:

June-Parish Council
July- Philoptochos
August- Parish Council
September-Hope /Joy
October-GOYA
November-Greek School
December-Sunday School
January- HOPE/JOY
February - GOYA
March-Greek School - Independence Day!
April -Sunday School
May - Philoptochos

GOYA

Our GOYA has been very active since the beginning of the year providing service to our church and our community as well as enjoying new-found friendships with each other and our seniors. In addition to serving in the Altar and the Choir, reading prayers during the Liturgy and assisting the Parish Council with the passing of the tray each Sunday, the GOYA has enjoyed several events during the past several months.

In January, GOYA rang in the New Year with our adopted grandparents by cutting a Vasilopita and making sandwiches for the homeless, which were delivered to the Loudoun Homeless Shelter. Our wonderful new Priest, Father George and Presvytera Ioanna joined us for this occasion.

In February, our GOYAns volunteered to help at our parish's very successful Taste of Greece festival. A great time was had by all! We also had our first GOYA meeting with Fr. George. It is a joy to have him involved with our youth. On February 13th, one of our parishioners, Melisa Galasso, who is involved with the application process at Georgetown University, along with her husband Frank, gave very generously of their time to conduct mock interviews with our GOYAns and prepare them for future college interviews.

In March, Fr. Sergius, the Abbot of St. Tikhon's Monastery in Waymart PA, came to visit our parish for a Lenten mini retreat, and spoke directly to our GOYAns concerning topics chosen by them.... "How do we know the Orthodox faith is the true faith?" and "Predestination vs. Free Will". It was a very enjoyable spiritual encounter. Also in March, our GOYA met at the Mediterranean Breeze for a Lenten lunch meeting to discuss our future plans.

In April, we met at the Koutsourais' home for a surprise service project followed by a Lenten lunch and movie. Once again, our GOYAns managed to work and have a good time. Also in April, GOYAns joined JOY & HOPE on the Saturday of Lazarus to fold palms with Fr. George and Presvytera, and we decorated the Kouvouklion on Holy Friday.

The GOYA will be holding its end of the year awards dinner on May 1st and will be hosting coffee hour on Mother's Day, May 8th. The GOYA will also be volunteering as well as Greek dancing at our annual Greek Festival on May 20-22.

Currently, our GOYA historian, Alexandra Dacey, along with her assistant, Alexia Barberoglou, are working on compiling a yearbook for 2010- 2011 to document our busy year. We have quite a talented group of kids! Glory be to God! We wish you all a blessed Pascha.

If you are interested in joining our GOYA, please contact Debbie Kangelaris at Kangelaris@msn.com or Effie Koutsourais at emkouts1@aol.com.

The Philoptochos

Spring has gone by very fast this year and having Easter so late in the seasons we have been staying quite busy. We want to thank all of you that helped support us with defying the cost of the beautiful Easter flowers that decorated our Sanctuary. I think you'll agree the flowers match the beauty of Easter.

Our spring community project is collecting food for Loudoun Interfaith Food Bank. We feel that during these hard times, a food drive that services all of Loudoun County is much more helpful. Our drive will continue to May 15.

On Saturday, May 7 we will be baking 30 trays of baklava, at Apple Spice Junction for our church Greek Festival. We are still in need of volunteers at Yiayia's Bake Shop during the festival. If you can help, our volunteer list is on the Philoptochos Bulletin Board.

The church bookstore is open during fellowship hour. We have a variety of books, from The Bible to children's books, icons to book-marks. Please stop by to see what all we have.

We sponsored a Lenten event at church in March. Thank you to Father George for shedding some light on the subject of fasting. We are in the process of putting together a Lenten cookbook and look forward to a finished product this fall. Many thanks to all the ladies who contributed their time and talents to making this happen. Especially to Loula Lagadinos for putting a "mini" cookbook together. If anyone has lenten recipes they would like to share, please send them by email to silvercps@hotmail.com.

Catechetical School

XPISTOS ANESTI! ALITHOS ANESTI!
CHRIST IS RISEN! TRULY HE IS RISEN!

As I reminisce during this Pascal season, it is quite clear to see that we have come a long way in only a few short years, and now our Lord has blessed us with an experienced, full time priest, Fr. George Alexson. Glory Be To God!

It is quite apparent that, sooner rather than later, we will outgrow our "nameless" warehouse church. We have become a full functioning parish. This becomes more evident by the growing number of families attending service every week. What a blessing it is to hear our Lord's Prayer every Sunday in so many different languages. This ethnic diversity is quite refreshing and welcoming to our many non-Greek speaking brethren.

In addition, the growth of our church is quite clear by the number of children we see every Sunday in catechetical school. We were all so proud to see our children's icon procession around the church during the Sunday of Orthodoxy. Also, the children participating in our St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival were quite amazing, to say the least; may they go on to greater spiritual blessings!

All these events have been made possible with the help of God, Fr. George, the Parish Council, the help of our dedicated teachers and, of course, the parents who have entrusted us, in part, with their children's spiritual guidance. Soon some of our older children will be going on to college or the work-force, like others before them. They will undoubtedly have to face the challenges of the "world". However, we hope and pray that we have established a strong foundation which will help them to maintain the Teachings and Traditions of our Faith. Having celebrated the Greatest Feast Day of our Faith; we need to continue to rejoice in the great love of God our Father. That He gave us His only Begotten Son Jesus Christ, and with His sacrifice, a chance to become His children and enjoy all the blessings of His Kingdom. Let us not lose sight of His eternal devotion and promise; that as St. Paul proclaims "For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:38-39) Blessed be the name of the Lord! "Where, O death is your victory? Where, O death is your sting?" (1 Corinthians 15:55) As St. Paul proclaimed this "good new" to the Greeks nearly 2000 years ago, let us also proclaim and rejoice with him in this truth.

Christ is risen from the day, trampling down death by death and bestowing life to those in the tombs! Amen!

Sunday School

We are all very proud of our Sunday school children's involvement in the St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival. This year we had a total of six children participating at our Parish level on March 6, 2011. There were three in the elementary level; Christina Kendrat, Sofia Adams, and Anna-Maria Kendrat. They each gave heart felt, moving talks regarding an aspect of our Orthodox faith. In the Junior Division, Jon Emch and Eleni Papageorge presented their talks on St. Seraphim of Sorov and on Terrorism. Dionissios Alexandros (Alex) Batistatos participated in the Senior Division with his talk on St. Paul's directive to the maturity of a Christian. Jon and Alex also went on to represent our Parish at the District finals held in Norfolk, Virginia on April 9th 2011. Among all the Greek Orthodox Churches of Virginia represented, Jon received "honorable mention" in the Junior Division and Alex finished first in the Senior Division. With his first place finish Alex now advances to the Metropolitan of New Jersey finals which will be held on May 14, 2011 in Clifton, NJ. There he will be presenting his speech as a representative of all the Greek Orthodox Churches of Virginia. These children are the future of our Parish, which from my perspective seems to be very bright, full of hope, wisdom and God's grace. May God bless them and their parents who continue to encourage them! Many thanks to all!
